PRE SHOW

Director's Note

Why is there a short play before the main attraction? While THE GREAT GATSBY can wholly stand on its own, in an effort to showcase more talent and provide artistic context to the era - I decided to pair this short two-act interpretation of GATSBY with an even shorter contemporary-to-the-time one-act play, ARIA DA CAPO.

ARIA is a play the characters in GATSBY could have seen and could have influenced their points of view. Both offer commentary about World War I (The Great War, the War to End All Wars) as well as wealth disparity, corruption, and the burgeoning celebrity culture. They are both reactions to leaving the Gilded Age and entering the Jazz Age.

GATSBY is a memory play; and ARIA is a parable. Presenting ARIA as a pre-show 'snack' is meant to set the tone and help focus the narrative questions posed in GATSBY. Often, the world of wealth, power, and corruption in Gatsby goes unchallenged, we are romanced by its beauty and freedom - perhaps by asking about greed and consequences before being seduced by the world of GATSBY we can see more the complexity Nick, the narrator and passenger to Gatsby and Daisy's great reconnection, intends in sharing this story with us. Nick stands in for us; beauty and power sweeping him up in a whirlpool, but grateful to have been able to reach the calm shores more or less unscathed by the turmoil.

We hope you enjoy ARIA DA CAPO followed by our feature presentation of THE GREAT GATSBY!

- Sabrina Lloyd, Theatre Director, LHS

Break a leg!

Nathaniel, congratulations on your outstanding performance in The Great Gatsby and in your final curtain as an actor with the Acting Troupe of Lambert! What a wonderful journey we have had together with you and ATL these past 4 years! We are so incredibly proud of you. You are an outstanding student, a marvelous actor, a devoted son, a loving brother, and a caring friend. You have given us so much joy and enjoyment in your performances and in your everyday self. We are privileged to watch you grow up into an amazing young man. Your quick wit, your intelligence, and most importantly your heart shine through.

You are an exceptional young man, and we know that you will continue to demonstrate your positive attitude, strong will, and kindness as you enter the next chapter of your life. We said this to you before and it still holds true: your commitment, drive, and hard work have made you a wonderful actor and an even better young man, and we know you will thrive in college. We love you with all our hearts, Dad, Mom, Izzy, & Hadley.
